“Abundant Trust: Embracing God's Generosity” is the theme for this year's Archbishop's Appeal. The archdiocesan fundraising goal is $1.4 million. The Appeal provides the opportunity for us to be generous in loving and caring for others as Christ did. It will require prayer, intentional reflection, and quite likely some sacrifice. Remember that through our generosity, we are drawing closer to Christ, saying "yes" to his Kingdom, and growing closer as a diocesan community. Please prayerfully consider how you can support our Archdiocese through this year's Archbishop's Appeal. More information, appeal brochures and donor cards will be sent to mailboxes in the coming weeks.

St. Luke—Evangelist—October 18

Luke wrote one of the major portions of the New Testament, a two-volume work comprising the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. In the two books he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and Paul calls him “our beloved physician.” His Gospel was probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

Luke appears in Acts during Paul's second journey, remains at Philippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey, accompanies Paul to Jerusalem, and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion.

Luke's unique character may best be seen by the emphases of his Gospel, which has been given a number of subtitles:

- 1) The Gospel of Mercy;
- 2) The Gospel of Salvation;
- 3) The Gospel of the Poor;
- 4) The Gospel of Absolute Renunciation;
- 5) The Gospel of Prayer and the Holy Spirit;
- 6) The Gospel of Joy.

Luke wrote as a Gentile for Gentile Christians. His Gospel and Acts of the Apostles reveal his expertise in classic Greek style as well as his knowledge of Jewish sources. There is a warmth to Luke's writing that sets it apart from that of the other synoptic Gospels, and yet it beautifully complements those works. The treasure of the Scriptures is a true gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church.
